

Confidentiality

Building trust every day...

At Fibreglass UK we appreciate the fact that we are entrusted with our Customers' valuable IP (Intellectual Property). As you would expect we treat this information with the greatest respect, and we take our Customers' trust very seriously.

All of our staff are required to sign internal confidentiality agreements, all manufacturing data is kept within our secure file server with strictly controlled access permissions and of course, access to sensitive factory areas is strictly prohibited to visitors, without exception

We are always more than happy to Sign an NDA (Non-Disclosure Agreement) or confidentiality agreement if required, your information is your business and that's how we regard it, respecting our clients confidentiality is an ethos within the company and our discretion is assured.

Richard Hayward
Managing Director
Fibreglass UK limited

Quality – service – flexibility